INTEGRATED ACCESS TECHNOLOGY GROUP, INC.
WEBSITE PRIVACY POLICY

Section 1. Scope

Thank you for visiting Integrated Access Technology Group, Inc. ("IATG") website ("Website"). Your privacy is important to us. To better protect your privacy we provide this notice explaining our online information practices and the choices you can make about the way your information is collected and used.

This notice applies to all information we may collect from you, or that you may provide when you visit the Website. To make this notice easy to find, we make it available on our Website homepage and at every point where personally identifiable information may be requested. This Privacy Policy will provide you with information as to how IATG collects, uses, maintains, protects, and shares information about you, including the choices IATG offers concerning that information, and applies to your use of any Website, regardless of how you access or use it. It does not apply to IATG's data collection activities offline or otherwise outside of the Website (unless otherwise stated below or at the time of collection). The policy also does not apply to information collected by any third party, including affiliates and subsidiaries, including through any application or content (including advertising) that may link to or be accessible from or through the Website.

Please read this policy carefully to understand our policies and practices regarding your information and how we will treat it. By visiting or otherwise using the Website, you consent to IATG's data collection, use, and disclosure practices, and other activities as described in this Privacy Policy, and any additional privacy statements that may be posted on an applicable part of the Website. If you do not agree and consent, please discontinue use of the Website. This policy may change from time to time. Your continued use of this Website after we make changes is deemed to be acceptance of those changes, so please check the policy periodically for updates.

Section 2. Children's Privacy

The Website is intended for an adult audience and not directed to, or intended for, children less than 16 years of age. IATG does not knowingly or intentionally to collect personal information as defined by the U.S. Children's Privacy Protection Act ("COPPA") ("Children's Personal Information") in a manner that is not permitted by COPPA. If you are under the 16 years of age, do not use or provide any information on this Website including your name, address, phone number, email address, or any screen name or user name you may use. If we learn that we have collected Children's Personal Information in a manner not permitted by COPPA, we will delete such data. If you believe we might have any information from or about a child under 16, please contact us at solutions@iatechgroup.com.

Section 3. Information Collection

3.1 Information We Collect and How We Collect It

You provide most of the information that IATG, and/or its agents, vendors, consultants, and other service providers ("Service Providers") collects. IATG and/or its Service Providers may collect information you provide directly to IATG and/or its Service Providers via the Website.

For example, IATG collects information when you use the Website, participate in marketing activities, or communicate or transact through the Website. Also, when you interact with third-party services (e.g., websites, locations, platforms, applications, or services operated by Service Providers) ("Third-Party Services"), you may be able to provide information to those Service Providers.

Information IATG, its Service Providers and/or Third-Party Services may collect may include personally identifiable information ("Personal Information"), which is information that identifies you personally, such as:

- First and last name;
- Address;
- Phone number;
- Email address;

We collect this information:

- Directly from you when you provide it to us.
- Automatically as you navigate through the Website. Information collected automatically may include usage details, IP addresses, and information collected through cookies web beacons, and other tracking technologies.
- From third parties, for example, our business partners.

Information You Provide to Us

The information we collect on or through our Website may include:

- Information that you provide by filling in forms on our Website. This includes information provided at the time you contact us through our website. We may also ask you for information when you report a problem with our Website.
- Your search queries on the Website.
- Pages or links you click on through our website.

Information Collected Automatically

IATG, its Service Providers, and/or Third-Party Services may also automatically collect certain information about you when you access or use the Website ("Usage Information") including IP address, device identifier, browser type, operating system, information about your use of the Website, and data regarding network connected hardware (e.g., computer or mobile device). Subject to applicable state, federal, or international law, IATG does not consider Usage Information (including, without limitation, unique device identifiers) to be Personal Information.

The methods that may be used on the Website to collect Usage Information include:

- Log Information: Log information is data about your use of the Website, such as IP address, browser type, internet Website provider, referring/exit pages, operating system, date/time stamps, and related data, and may be stored in log files.
- Information Collected by Cookies and Other Tracking Technologies: Cookies, web beacons (also known as "tracking pixels"), embedded scripts, unique identifiers location-identifying technologies, and other tracking technologies now and hereafter developed ("Tracking Technologies") may be used to collect information about interactions with the Website or emails, including information about your browsing behavior.

For information on how you can opt out of behavioral tracking on this website you can contact us at solutions@iatechgroup.com.

The information we collect automatically does not include personal information, but we may maintain it or associate it with personal information we collect in other ways or receive from third parties. It helps us to improve our Website and to deliver a better and more personalized service, including by enabling us to:

- Estimate our audience size and usage patterns.
- Store information about your preferences, allowing us to customize our Website according to your individual interests.
- Speed up your searches.
- Recognize you when you return to our Website.

Information Collected Through Third Parties.

IATG's Service Providers and/or Third-Party Services may collect Personal Information, such as your first and last name, email address, phone number, and address, social media account, and image. Also, Service Providers and/or Third-Party Services may collect demographic information, such as your age, gender, interests, education, and employment information ("Demographic Information").

The following Service Providers or Third Party Services may collect the above mentioned personal information on behalf of IATG:

1. HubSpot, Google Analytics, LinkedIn, ZoomInfo, Meta Pixel

If you have any questions about what Personal Information or Demographic Information either collects, you should contact the responsible provider directly.

Except to the extent required by applicable law, Demographic Information is "non-Personal Information" (i.e., data that is not Personal Information under this Privacy Policy).

Further, Personal Information once "De-identified" (i.e., the removal or modification of the personally identifiable elements, or the extraction non-personally identifiable elements including through anonymization, and/or hashing) is also non-Personal Information and may be used and shared without obligation to you, except as prohibited by applicable law. We do not attempt to re-identify the de-identified data and implement reasonable administrative and technical controls to prevent the data from being associated with an individual.

3.2 Cookies and Other Tracking Technologies

The technologies we use for automatic data collection may include:

2. HubSpot, Meta Pixel, Google Analytics, LinkedIn, ZoomInfo,

3. Cookies.

Cookies are text files placed on your computer to collect standard Internet log information and visitor behavior information. When you visit the Website, we may collect information from you automatically through cookies or similar technology.

How We Use Cookies.

IATG uses cookies in a range of ways to keep you signed in, ensure the Website works correctly, improve your experience with the Website, understanding how you use the Website, and for marketing purposes to know if you have come to the website through any of our advertising methods. You may refuse to accept browser cookies by activating the appropriate setting on your browser. However, if you select this setting you may be unable to access certain parts of our Website. Unless you have adjusted your browser setting so that it will refuse cookies, our system will issue cookies when you direct your browser to our Website.

The Types of Cookies We Use.

There are several different types of cookies; however, the Website uses:

- Functional Cookies. These cookies are essential for accessing and using the Website. These cookies do not gather information about you that could be used for marketing purposes and do not remember where you have been on the Internet. These cookies cannot be disabled because they are essential to ensure the Website operates correctly.
- Advertising – Our Company uses these cookies to collect information about your visit to our website, the content you viewed, the links you followed and information about your browser, device, and your IP address. Our Company sometimes shares some limited aspects of this data with third parties for advertising purposes. We may also share online data collected through cookies with our advertising partners. This means that when you visit another website, you may be shown advertising based on your browsing patterns on our website.

- Analytics and Customization Cookies. IATG uses Service Providers and Third-Party Websites cookies to collect information about how visitors use the Website. These cookies collect information in the aggregate to give us insight into how the Website is being used.

Other Tracking Technologies.

- Web Beacons ("Tracking Pixels")
The Website may also contain electronic images known as Web Beacons (sometimes referred to as "clear gifs"). Web Beacons collect only limited information that includes a cookie number, time and date of a page view, and a description of the page on which the Web Beacon resides. We may also carry Web Beacons placed by third-party advertisers. These Web Beacons do not carry any Personal Information and are only used to track usage of the Website and activities associated with the Website.
- Unique Identifiers
IATG may assign you a unique internal identifier to help keep track of your future visits. We use this information to gather aggregate demographic information about our visitors, and we use it to personalize the information you see on the Website and some of the electronic communications you receive from us.
- Embedded Scripts
An embedded script is programming code designed to collect information about your interactions with the Website. It is temporarily downloaded onto your computer from IATG's web server, or from a Service Provider with which IATG works, and is active only while you are connected to the Website, and deleted or deactivated after that.
- Location Identifying Technologies
Global positioning systems ("GPS") software, geo-filtering, and other location-aware technologies locate (sometimes precisely) you, or make assumptions about your location, for purposes such as verifying your location and delivering or restricting content based on your location. If you enabled GPS or use other location-based features on the Website, it may track your device location.

3.3 How We Use Information We Collect or Obtain

IATG may use information about you, including other Personal Information, for any purposes consistent with IATG's statements under this Privacy Policy, or otherwise made by us in writing at the point of collection, and not prohibited by applicable law, including, without limitation, the following:

- To present our Website and its contents to you.
- To provide you with information, products, or websites that you request from us.
- To fulfill any other purpose for which you provide it.

- To market toward you, identify new business opportunities, and provide us with information to improve the performance of the Website.
- To carry out our obligations and enforce our rights arising from any contracts entered into between you and us, including for billing and collection.
- To notify you about changes to our Website or any products or Websites we offer or provide through it.
- To allow you to participate in interactive features on our Website.
- In any other way that we may describe when you provide the information.
- For any other purpose with your consent.

3.4 Information Sharing

We may disclose aggregated information about our users, and information that does not identify any individual, without restriction. We do not sell, lease, or rent your personal information to third parties without your consent.

We may disclose Personal Information that we collect, or you provide as described in this Privacy Policy:

- To our subsidiaries and affiliates.
- To contractors, Service Providers, and other third parties we use to support our business and who are bound by contractual obligations to keep Personal Information confidential and secure, and use it only for the purposes for which we disclose it to them.
- To a buyer or other successor in the event of a merger, divestiture, restructuring, reorganization, dissolution, or other sale or transfer of some or all of IATG's assets, whether as a going concern or as part of bankruptcy, liquidation, or similar proceeding, in which Personal Information held by IATG about our Website users is among the assets IATG transfers.
- To fulfill the purpose for which you provide it.
- For any other purpose disclosed by us when you provide the information.
- With your consent.
- We will not share any text messaging opt-in data or consent information with any third-parties (including subsidiaries or affiliates).

We may also disclose your Personal Information:

- To comply with any court order, law, or legal process, including to respond to any government or regulatory request.
- To enforce or apply our terms of use or other agreements, including for billing and collection purposes.
- If we believe disclosure is necessary or appropriate to protect the rights, property, or safety of IATG, our customers, or others. This includes exchanging information with other companies and organizations for fraud protection and credit risk reduction.

Section 4. Third-Party Services/Content, Social Features, Advertising, and Analytics

Some content or applications, including advertisements, on the Website that Service Providers and Third-Party Services serve, including advertisers, ad networks and servers, content providers, and application providers, could include advertisements. These Service Providers and Third-Party Services may use cookies alone or in conjunction with web beacons or other tracking technologies to collect information about you when you use the Website. The information they collect may be associated with your Personal Information, or they may collect information, including Personal Information, about your online activities over time and across different websites and other online services. They may use this information to provide you with interest-based (behavioral) advertising or other targeted content.

We do not control the tracking technologies used by or how the Service Providers and Third-Party Services use the tracking technologies. If you have any questions about an advertisement or other targeted content, you should contact the responsible Service Providers and or Third-Party Service directly.

As permitted by applicable law, IATG is not responsible for and makes no representations regarding, the policies or business practices of any third parties, including, without limitation, analytics Service Providers and Third-Party Services associated with the Website, and encourages you to familiarize yourself with and consult their privacy policies and terms of use.

Section 5. Choices About How We Use and Disclose Your Information

We strive to provide you with choices regarding the Personal Information you provide to us. We have created mechanisms to provide you with the following control over your information:

Tracking Technologies and Advertising. You can set your browser to refuse all or some browser cookies or to alert you when cookies are sent. To learn how you can manage your Flash cookie settings, visit the Flash player settings page on Adobe's website. If you disable or refuse cookies, please note that some parts of this site may then be inaccessible or not function properly.

Marketing Communications. You can opt-out of receiving email marketing communications from IATG at any time by following the instructions provided in emails (i.e., a link in the emails to unsubscribe from future emails). Please note that your opt-out is limited to the email address used and will not affect subsequent subscriptions. If you opt-out of only certain communications, other subscription communications may continue. Even if you opt-out of receiving marketing communications, IATG may, subject to applicable law, continue to send you non-marketing communications, such as those about your account, transactions, servicing, or IATG's ongoing business relations.

Disclosure of Your Information for Third-Party Advertising. If you do not want us to share your personal information with unaffiliated or non-agent third parties for promotional purposes, you can opt-out by sending us an email with your request to solutions@iatechgroup.com.

Targeted Advertising. If you do not want us to use information that we collect or that you provide to us to deliver advertisements according to our advertisers' target-audience preferences, you can opt-out by emailing us at solutions@iatechgroup.com.

Section 6. Access, Change, and Delete Information

You may also send us an email at solutions@iatechgroup.com to request access to, correct, or delete any Personal Information that you have provided to us. We may not accommodate a request to change information if we believe the change would violate any law or legal requirement or cause the information to be incorrect.
